

Black Educators Association
Job Opportunity

WE'RE HIRING

CAEP Site Teacher

Dartmouth North Area

Description:

The Black Educators Association (BEA) is seeking a dedicated and culturally responsive Site Teacher to join our Cultural Academic Enrichment Program (CAEP). This part-time role is ideal for educators who are passionate about empowering African Nova Scotian youth through education and cultural enrichment.

Position Details

- Compensation: $35/hour
- Start Date: October 2025
- Schedule: Tuesday & Thursday (Evenings)
- Hours: 12 hours bi-weekly (approx. 6 hours per week)

Send your Resume & Cover Letter to:
Email: Maggie.andrew@bea-ns.ca

Qualifications:

- Background in education, tutoring, or related youth work (B.Ed, M.Ed, or relevant experience preferred)
- Experience working with African Nova Scotian or other racialized communities
- Understanding of culturally responsive and inclusive pedagogy
- Strong communication, organizational, and classroom management skills
- Reliable and able to commit to the full program term
- Technology Proficiency (Zoom, google teams, Microsoft word etc)

Responsibilities

- Lead small-group academic support sessions in a culturally affirming environment
- Support students' academic growth while fostering cultural identity and confidence
- Work closely with the site coordinator to implement programming
- Maintain accurate attendance and progress reports
- Ensure a respectful, inclusive, and engaging learning space

